

INSTITUT
SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR INSTITUTE
presents

BROWN BAG LUNCH TALK

TOPIC: CHILD SEXUAL ABUSE

by

Merrilyn McDonald

Author, Pro-Child Activist

What is child sexual abuse? Are females victimized more frequently than males? Why do so few victims disclose their abuse? Who are the offenders and what are they like? Is there any lasting effect? Does our system protect victims of child sexual abuse? What can one do to help Child Abuse victims and survivors? These issues will be discussed. Question and answer period will follow the talk.

PLACE: Simone de Beauvoir Institute
2170 Bishop St.
Room: 101 Lounge

DATE: Wednesday, November 16, 1988

TIME: 12:30 - 2:30
(SEATING LIMITED)

